Press release

Change in management at Corvaglia Closures Mexico

Bernardo Osés, Managing Director of Corvaglia Closures S.A. de C.V. (in Ixtlahuaca, Mexico), and Francisco González, Consultant, have left the company with effect from 1 June 2016.

The Board of Directors and management regret these departures, and would like to thank Mr. Osés and Mr. González for their many years of dedication to the company and wish them every success for the future, both privately and professionally.

José Salame has been named new Managing Director of Corvaglia Closures S.A. de C.V. Mr. Salame boasts an exemplary service record and has many years of experience as a decision maker in the beverage-packaging industry in Mexico.

Speaking about the appointment, Michael Krueger, corvaglia group CEO, said: "I am convinced that Mr. Salame and the entire team in Mexico will continue to provide our customers with the excellent level of service they have come to expect from Corvaglia Closures S.A. de C.V. This appointment will enable the company to pursue its path to continued success and make a significant contribution to the strong overall performance of the corvaglia group."

corvaglia is a highly specialized provider of closure systems for the beverage industry. Founded in 1991, the company today employs a global total of over 250 staff at its headquarters in Eschlikon, Switzerland, and an additional manufacturing plant in Mexico.
